

A delegation from the Australian Labor Party Members of Parliament from Victoria state paid courtesy visit to the Chief Minister's camp office and met the CM Jagan Mohan Reddy on Monday. A series of discussions were held on synergies that can be created related to energy, education & skills development sectors. Following the meeting, the delegation has expressed their satisfaction over the discussions held.

"We have a lot of commonalities in terms of policies of education and a vision for getting some synergies between skills so that we can assist each other in the area. We've had discussion on the energy and the renewables. I have been hearing on the interesting initiatives taken up by the government in terms of the wi
