During evaluation of Proposals, APDC may, at its discretion, ask the Bidder for a clarification of its bid. APDC may also ask for rate analysis of any or all items and if rates are found to be unreasonably low or high, the bid shall be treated as non-responsive and hence liable to be rejected. The request for a clarification and the response shall be in writing and no change in prices or substance of the bid shall be sought, offered or permitted.

2.19 Preliminary Examination

- APDC will examine the bids to determine whether they are complete, whether any computational errors have been made, whether sureties have been furnished, whether the documents have been properly signed, and whether the bids are generally in order.

- Prior to the detailed evaluation, APDC will determine the substantial responsiveness of each bid to the bidding documents. For purposes of these clauses, a substantially responsive bid is one, which confirms to all the terms and conditions of the bidding documents without material deviation.
- Deviations from or objections or reservations to critical provisions such as those concerning performance security, Warranty, Applicable law and Taxes and duties will have deemed to be material deviations. APDC determination of a bid's responsiveness is to be based on the contents of the bid itself without recourse to extrinsic evidence.
- If a Bid is not substantially responsive, it will be rejected by APDC and may not subsequently be made responsive by the Bidder by correction of the non- conformity.
- Conditional bids are liable to be rejected.

2.20 Consortium & Sub-Contracting

Consortium and sub-contracting is not allowed for this engagement. The bidding agency has to be a single entity duly registered under the applicable laws of country.

2.21 Performance Bank Guarantee (PBG)

All incidental charges what so ever such as premium; commissions etc. with respect to the Performance Bank Guarantee (PBG) shall be borne by the selected agency. The PBG may be discharged / returned by APDC upon being satisfied that there has been due performance of the obligations of the bidder under the work order. However, no interest shall be payable on the security deposit or the performance bank guarantee. The bidder shall submit PBG at the time of agreement. The PBG should remain valid for a period of 24 months from the date of issue of work order. The PBG will be 10% (ten percent) of the work order value.

The selected agency shall be responsible for extending the validity date and claim period of the PBG as and when it is due on account of non-completion of the work order. In case the selected agency fails to submit PBG within the time stipulated, APDC at its discretion may cancel the work order placed on the selected agency without giving any notice. APDC shall invoke the PBG in case the selected agency fails to discharge their work order obligations during the period.

SECTION – III: EVALUATION PROCESS

APDC will constitute a committee (Proposal /Bid Evaluation Committee) to evaluate the responses of the Bidders. The Purchase Committee constituted by APDC shall evaluate the responses to the RFP and all supporting documents / documentary evidence. Inability of a Bidder to submit requisite supporting documents / documentary evidence within a reasonable time provided to it, may lead to the Bidder's Proposal being declared invalid.

The decision of the Purchase Committee in the evaluation of responses to the RFP shall be final. No correspondence will be entertained outside the process of negotiation/ discussion with the Purchase Committee. The Purchase Committee may ask for meetings with the Bidders to seek clarifications on their proposals.

The Purchase Committee reserves the right to reject any or all Proposals on the basis of any deviations contained in them. Each of the responses shall be evaluated as per the criteria and requirements specified in this RFP.
